

בית המשפט העליון
THE SUPREME COURT OF ISRAEL

Justice Neal Hendel

Justice of the Supreme Court of Israel

Curriculum Vitae

October 2009	Appointed Justice of the Supreme Court of Israel
August 2006	Appointed Vice President of the Beer-Sheva Southern District Court
January 1997	Permanent appointment as Judge of the Beer-Sheva Southern District Court
September 1993	Appointed Registrar of the Beer-Sheva Southern District Court and Acting District Court Judge
June 1988	Appointed Judge of the Beer-Sheva Magistrates' Court
1983-1988	Worked in the office of the State Attorney, Southern District
1984	Admitted to the Israeli Bar Association
1983	Immigrated to Israel
1977-1983	Partner in private practice at a law firm in New York
1977	Admitted to the New York Bar Association
1976	Completed his legal studies at the University of Hofstra Faculty of Law
1974-1976	Worked as an attorney at Legal Aid Bureau; received the Goldman award
1973	Completed Talmud studies with Rabbi Y. Soloveitchik, Yeshiva University, New York
1969-1973	BA studies at New York University, double major in Sociology and Jewish Studies.
1965-1969	Studied at Yeshiva of Flatbush, NY
1952	Born in the United States

Lectures and writes on Jewish, American, Comparative and Israeli Law.

Justice Hendel is married to Marcie, a Developmental Psychologist, and has five sons and three grandchildren.